UN GETS NEW PLAN TO PROBE FRANCO SPAIN

Australia Proposes Five-Man Inquiry; Council Postpones Action Till Monday.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 26—The United Nations security council received a new proposal from Australia that a five-man committee be named to investigate the Spanish question. It deferred further consideration of the case until 3 p m Monday.

The council then adjourned at 6 p m.

Immediately after Lt Col. W. R. Hodgson of Australia presented his draft of a resolution calling for a five-man sub-committee, Dr. De La Colina, Mexican delegate suggested that a vote be postponed until Monday to permit time to study the proposal and to permit the delegates to get new instructions

Text of Plan

The text of the new Australian proposal follows:

"The attention of the security council has been drawn to the situation in Spain by a member of the United Nations acting in accordance with Article 35 of the charter and the security council has been asked to declare that this situation has led to international friction and endangered international peace and security

"Therefore, the security council having in mind the moral condemnation of the Franco regime by the security council and the resolutions concerning Spain which were adopted at the United Nations conference on international organization in San Francisco and at the first general assembly of the United Nations and the views expressed by the members of the security council regarding the Franco regime, hereby resolve

"To make further studies in order to determine whether the situation in Spain has led to international friction and does endanger international peace and security, and if it so thinks, then to determine what practical measures the United Nations may take

Provides Subcommittee

To this end the security council appoints a subcommittee of five of its members and instructs this subcommittee to examine the statements made before the security council concerning Spain, to receive further statements and documents and to conduct such inquiries as it may deem necessary and to report to the security council as soon as it may deem practicable."

Hodgson told the council he had been successful in his attempts to find a compromise with the French delegate, Henri Bonnet, and the Polish delegate, Dr. Oscar Lange.

The resolution stated specifically that it was the duty of the council and not the subcommittee to decide what should be done about Franco Spain.

Hodgson pointed out, however, that the proposal gave the subcommittee wide powers to decide where and how the inquiry is to be made

Russia Opposed

The Hodgson move today was the result of overnight efforts to arrive at a formula that might enable the delegates for once to render a unanimous decision but

Fate of Harbin Left in Doubt by Blackout

NANKING, April 26 — Communist forces presumably occupied Harbin, important north Manchurian railroad center, today but a breakdown in communications obscured the situation.

The government's Central News Agency said that destruction of communications between Mukden and Harbin made it impossible to ascertain whether the last Soviet units had left Harbin, as scheduled.

Earlier reports to the Nanking newspaper Takangpao said the Soviets had begun the withdrawal of their rear guard yesterday, the same day Marshal Rodion Malinovsky, commandant of Russia's Far East forces, quit the city.

U. S. Told To Tighten Belt, Slash Wheat for Livestock

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 26—Americans were told bluntly today they must eat less bread and feed less wheat to livestock if the nation is to meet its obligations to the starving abroad

This notice was given by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson in a statement describing the wheat situation as "very serious"

The seriousness of the wheat situation was brought out by two developments

1 An agriculture department report that stocks of wheat on April 1 were from 17,000,000 to possibly more than 46,000,000 busnels short of total demands until the new harvest.

2 A department statement that exports of wheat to hungry areas are falling farther and farther behind this country's commitments

Action Not Indicated

While declaring that Americans must use less wheat by eating less flour and wheat products and by feeding less of the grain to livestock, Anderson did not indicate whether the government would take action beyond present measures designed to curb domestic consumption

At present food use of wheat is restricted by an order requiring millers and food processors to deliver 25 per cent less flour and wheat products to civilians than in the corresponding months last year

Use of wheat for livestock feed is restricted by an order limiting mixed feed manufacturers to 65 per cent of the wheat they used in April of last year During May and the remainder of this year the percentage will be 60 per

RUSSIA DUE TO BLOCK U. S. ON AUSTRIAN CASE

Soviets Seek To Delay Talk as Big Four Ministers Resume Parley.

By The Associated Press

PARIS, April 26—The Big Four foreign ministers met again this afternoon to seek agreements on European peace treaties amid reports that Russia would block any American effort to secure discussion of the Austrian situation.

An American informant confirmed that the Russians yesterday opposed placing Austria on the agenda The Russians, however, raised no objection to discussion of French demands for detachment of the Ruhr and Rhineland from Germany, this source said.

Secretary of State James F Byrnes conferred with British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin more than an hour before the second day of the negotiations started.

Prefer To Make Study

A source in conference circles said the Russians told the foreign ministers of the United States, Great Britain and France yesterday they realized the seriousness of the Austrian situation and felt it needed careful study before being discussed and that they did not believe such a study could be completed in time for discussion at the present conference

It was understood that the general reparations question for European countries other than Germany would be taken up as the first point on the agenda

Both Bevin and Byrnes declined comment as they emerged from their conference.

Russia's decision to allow France to participate in discussions in Balkan treaties created a fresh atmosphere of optimism today as the four foreign ministers buckled down to their task of writing a new peace for Europe.

Discussion of the Italian peace treaty headed the agenda of the second-day meeting of the ministers of the United States, Britain, Russia and France, scheduled at 4 p m (10 a. m. EST). The deputy foreign ministers met at 11 a m (5 a m. EST) to prepare the groundwork on this pact

Russian Backs Up

Soviet Foreign Minister V M Molotov, unexpectedly reversing a decision he had announced last year at the London foreign ministers' conference, said yesterday he had no objection to French observers attending discussions of treaties with the Balkans and Finland

The United States also will sit in without a vote on the discussions on Finland.

Delegates to the conference, most of whom had come to Paris with few optimistic hopes, said Molotov's action might indicate that Moscow would prove to be more conciliatory on other issues

The United States reportedly asked the ministers to draft a treaty assuring independence for Austria, and France requested the internationalization of the Ruhr and the detachment of the Rhineland from Germany.

Molotov objected to adding these subjects to the agenda on the grounds they were unforeseen developments which required

U. S. Action Seen Only Way To Head Off Railroad Strike

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, April 26—Except for the possibility of further government action—for which there were wartime precedents—there appeared today little chance to head off a nationwide walkout of nearly 300,000 trainmen and engineers on May 18, halting rail traffic all over the country.

Originally scheduled to begin March 11, the strike was rescheduled yesterday as the two brotherhoods turned down the report of a presidential fact-finding board.

It could be forestalled if the nation's carriers made concessions in conferences which are to open in Chicago Monday But labor observers here doubted that this development was likely.

Two Courses Open

Further government action could take two courses, either seizure and operation of the roads by federal authority, or a resumption of fact-finding efforts, through appointment of a new board or reconvening the old.

It was recalled that in December, 1943, and January, 1944, when all the rail unions scheduled strikes and rejected fact-finding reports, the war department took over the roads by presidential order. President Roosevelt as sole arbiter settled the case of the trainmen and engineers. The enginemen and firemen, the conductors and the switchmen declined to accept a similar settlement, but finally cancelled their strike call and signed an agreement with the carriers. The President convened a special board to settle the case of 15 non-operating brotherhoods.

A. F. Whitney ,president of the trainmen, said yesterday "if the government calls us to Washington, we'll go, but the strike order won't be called off until a satisfactory settlement is reached."

Last night the three other operating brotherhoods announced they would join a move by the 15 non-operating unions to re-

EISENHOWER URGES U. S. SEEK ENDURING PEACE

Tells Advertising Group Strength Needed by Nation.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 26—Gen Dwight D. Eisennower says the United States should travel the paths of progressive universal disarmament, organized international cooperation and mutual international understanding in order to achieve enduring peace.

At the same time the chief of staff declares America must maintain its military, economic and spiritual strength to protect its own national security and to offer effective support for world peace.

"Uncoordinated disarmament by itself is a treacherous road to our goal," Eisenhower told a dinner of the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers association last night. "To believe that uncoordinated disarmament can liberate us from fear of war is a fatuous notion."

The dinner ended the 60th annual convention of the ANPA, largest in the organization's history with 1,034 delegates attending.

William G. Chandler of New York, Scripps-Howard newspaper executive, was re-elected president of the ANPA.

Directors re-elected included Charles F. McCahill of the Cleveland, O, News.

NAZI WITNESS WAS YANK SPY

German Mystery Man, Called by Defense, Revealed as American Agent.

By The Associated Press

NUERNBERG, April 26—Hans Bernd Gisevius, a mystery defense witness who proved a boomerang on the stand, testified today he had "been in contact during the war" with the American intelligence services

Many among the 22 German leaders on trial on war crimes charges appeared shocked, as if understanding at last why his testimony had been among the most damaging offered against them during the five months of proceedings before the international military tribunal

Outside the courtroom, a qualified American informant said Gisevius had been in the service of the U S Office of Strategic Services in Switzerland and Germany since 1943.

Prior to the disclosure he had been identified only as a veteran conspirator against Hitler and a participant in the bomb plot against the Fuehrer in July, 1944

A member of the American prosecution staff said in an interview that during the last two years of the war, Gisevius was one of the American intelligence service's most valuable men on the continent.

Contacted at Zurich

The Americans got in contact with him after he had been placed by Adm Walter Wilhelm Canaris in an intelligence position in the German consulate in Zurich After the Hitler bomb attempt, Gisevius was stripped of his civil service job, but the Swiss allowed him to remain in their country During his years in Switzerland, Gisevius made frequent trips to Berlin and other parts of Germany to deal

More Frost Slated for Ohio Tonight

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O, April 26 — Frost was predicted for Ohio tonight, raising the possibility of damage to fruit trees already hit by low temperatures earlier this month after unseasonably warm weather

Official forecasts said frost and possibly freezing temperature could be expected in central and northern Ohio except along Lake Erie

Meteorologist George Mindling said here that the danger of damage from frost would be considerably lessened if present winds continued throughout the night, but he added that freezing temperatures would be especially hard on fruit trees now well advanced

Mindling said late reports indicated frost and freezing temperatures might extend into southern Ohio

Schools Reject 3-Class Setup

Basketball Proposition Loses 412 to 364 in Vote of Ohio Principals.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O, April 26—Ohio high schools rejected today a proposal that the state be divided into three classes instead of the present two, for basketball competition The vote, announced by Harold W Emswiler, commissioner of the Ohio High School Athletic Association, was 412 against the proposal and 361 in favor

Had the proposal, submitted by a group of Toledo schools, been approved, there would have been three state tournaments next year instead of the present two

Under an OHSAA rule, such a suggestion now can not be voted on again for three years

The proposal was that Class 'B' consist of schools with male enrollments of up to 150, Class "A" schools of from 150 to 400 boys and a new Class "AA," schools with more than 400 boys.

The referendum was the second to be held on a major athletic policy since the OHSSA decided to make votes of individual principals a matter of public record

The association voted to admit Bronton St Joseph to membership

FAMINE CHECK LISTS DISTRIBUTION BEGUN

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O, April 26—The first distribution of famine relief check lists, prepared at the request of the President's famine emergency committee for housewives throughout the nation, got underway today in ten Columbus and Franklin county schools

Spokesmen for the Red Cross, which is making the distribution, said Franklin county was chosen as the starting point of the campaign because of its nationally representative location and well organized Junior Red Cross units

Within a few weeks the check lists will be given to some 22,000,000 pupils in public, private and parochial schools throughout the nation for use in home kitchens. All schools in Ohio should receive the lists within a few days, Red Cross workers here reported.

The campaign designed to help in alleviating world famine, was initiated by the U. S. department of commerce.

The "check list" grades housewives' conservation of wheat, cereals and fats as "excellent," "good," and "fair."

Housewives are asked to grade themselves on food saving activities. On the opposite side of lists are statements urging compliance with the principles of good nutrition as well as conservation of food.

125 INJURED IN COLLISION OF FAST FLYERS

Burlington Engineer Charged with Manslaughter; 31 Still in Hospital.

By The Associated Press

NAPERVILLE, Ill, April 26—Weary rescue workers today counted at least 44 dead in a tangle the rear-end collision of the Burlington railroad's westbound fast Exposition Flyer and Advance Flyer yesterday.

Of 125 persons injured when the Exposition Flyer, speeding at more than 80 miles an hour toward San Francisco, rammed the stopped Advance Flyer, 31 remained in hospitals, some in critical condition All but seven of the dead had been identified

The engineer of the Exposition Flyer, who Burlington railroad officials said had adequate warning that the preceding train had stopped, was charged with manslaughter DuPage county officials said, however, this was a technicality to make certain the engineer would appear at an inquest and that no evidence of laxity had been uncovered

31 Minutes from Chi

The crash of the two steel car, Diesel-powered trains occurred just 31 minutes after they left Chicago's Union station simultaneously at 12:35 p. m, CWT on separate tracks, but after a few miles moved onto a single center track, with the Advance Flyer, which ran on a faster schedule, in the lead. The Advance Flyer, carrying 150 to 200 passengers in nine coaches, was bound for Omaha and Lincoln, Nebr The Exposition Flyer, made up of 11 coaches and carrying 175 to 200 persons, was headed for San Francisco.

Two minutes after the Advance Flyer made an unscheduled stop in this village of 3,207, a terrific crash roared through the countryside as the Exposition Flyer plowed into the rear of the stalled train

A moment of tragic silence was broken by screams and cries for help from the dying and injured

At first there was complete confusion. Huge, shining passenger coaches were strewn across turn tracks, some in tangled wreckage,

Rear Coach Worst

The cries of the dying came mostly from the rear coach of the Advance Flyer, where passengers were trapped.

Eleven coaches were overturned or left the rails, six on the Advance Flyer and five on the Exposition Flyer.

As Burlington officials pursued their investigation of the worst accident in its history and also the most tragic in the Chicago area, State's Attorney Lee Daniels of DuPage county said a warrant charging manslaughter had been issued for W. W. Blaine, 68, Galesburg, Ill, engineer of the Exposition Flyer.

Daniels said the action was taken to insure Blaine's appearance at an inquest later into the deaths. Daniels said he had interviewed members of the train crews and found no evidence of laxity.

The engineer suffered a skull fracture, the prosecutor said, and will not be arraigned on the manslaughter warrant for at least two weeks or until he is released from a hospital where he is under guard. His bond was fixed at $5,000.

Daniels said Blaine, for more than 43 years a railroad man, told him that just before the collision Fireman E. H. Crayton warned him he was going to strike the Advance Flyer. He said Crayton apparently jumped before the crash and was killed.

Stays at Throttle

Blaine, however, stayed at his throttle as his train sped toward the stalled Advance Flyer. The Exposition Flyer's silver nose plowed into the rear coach and for a fleeting moment appeared to stagger in the air, tear through the roof, then plunge with terrific force upon the floor and trunks of the car.

Blaine suffered cuts on the head and was taken to an Aurora hospital.

Daniels quoted the engineer as saying his train was traveling 85 miles an hour when he noticed the first of two warning signals. The engineer applied the brakes at once, Daniels said Blaine related, but "it was too late. How I came out alive, I'll never know.

At the station, James Tangney, flagman on the Advance Flyer, left the rear coach and told passengers, "I'm going to stop that train behind us."

Started Too Late

But before he had walked a dozen steps, the Exposition Flyer roared toward the stalled train and, with brakes screeching and

FOOD FOR JAPS STIRS ALLIES

U. S. Reply Defending Shipments Likely To Have More Repercussions.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 26 — The state department created an unusual diplomatic situation today by its brusque treatment of a far eastern commission directive on food shipments to Japan

There were indications that at least some members of the commission would consider the department's reaction unsatisfactory and that the incident would have further repercussions

The question centered about the decision of the United States to send half a million tons of grain to Japan for relief purposes by July 1

The commission — an 11-nation Allied policy-making agency for Japan- studied the food question yesterday and requested the United States to reconsider immediately its decision to ship that much food to the Japanese

The request was coupled with a policy statement that the United States should not allow Japan any food priority over needy Allied nations, except where food imports "are essential immediately for the safety of the occupation forces"

Assistant Secretary of State John H Hilldring, replying for the government several hours later, asserted the United States already was pursuing the food policy laid down by the commission with respect to Japan. But he

By The Associated Press

AKRON, O., April 26—A strike of some 1,400 CIO-United Rubber Workers at the B. F. Goodrich Co.'s main plant was settled today and workers agreed to return to work immediately, the company and union reported.

The agreement was reached shortly after a production [illegible] hourly had halted, throwing 15,000 [illegible] idle.

The company said the walkout was a protest against its withholding of pay of employes who quit early and that only 18 workers actually were involved.

OWNERS SAY LEWIS TO ASK RECORD HIKE

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 26 — Steel-bound soft coal operators braced themselves today for an ultimate wage demand from John L. Lewis which one of them predicted would eclipse anything industry has yet heard.

Edward R. Burke, president of the Southern Coal Producers Association, said reporters:

"I see Mr. Lewis is interested in a welfare and welfare fund for the miners. I'll be he is sincerely interested in promoting safety in the mines.

"But I think his real demand is for a wage rate considerably higher than Philip Murray or any other union leader has been able to get. I think he is the greatest [illegible] that has ever existed. He has not said anything about what his wage demand will be."

Burke told his news conference congress could hurdle two obstacles to a soft coal contract by [illegible] employes under the Wagner Labor Relations act to exclude supervisory workers and by enacting a law making it illegal for a union to demand an "excise tax" on the product of an employer.

The latter, Burke said, should be a general law, not limited only to Lewis or to James C. Petrillo, head of the American Federation of Musicians.

OSMENA LOSES OUT, SAYS VOTE STOLEN

By The Associated Press

MANILA, April 26—Sergio Osmena's headquarters tonight virtually conceded his defeat for the Philippines presidency with a charge that the election is being stolen and apparently nothing can be done about it.

A highly placed source at Malacanan Palace, who demanded use of his name, said the chances of President Osmena defeating senate leader Manuel Roxas "are very slender."

"Roxas supporters terrorized the voters in at least three provinces, Tarlac, Batangas and Nueva Ecija," he said. "It seems clear now that Roxas' charges that there would be intimidation and vote falsification were only to cover up those very practices by his own supporters."

Repeated attempts to contact Roxas for comment have failed. As far as can be ascertained he is not at his residence and has not been since election eve, when he went into hiding. His secretary said then that Roxas left seclusion after hearing rumors of a last minute plot against him.

The Associated Press' tabulation of votes at 6 p. m. from 4,748 of the commonwealth's 14,238 precincts gave Roxas 478,543, Osmena 391,121.

Roxas thus had increased his margin by 14,000 votes in the last 38 precincts reporting.

Mt. Gilead School To Expand Its Athletic Facilities

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD, April 26 — A $6,000 expansion program for the Mt. Gilead High school athletic field was discussed at a meeting of the Booster club last night at the high school building.

The proposed project would include the installation of night, construction of bleachers to accommodate 1,000 persons and building a fence around the entire site of the present community athletic field. Estimated cost of the project is $6,000 and officials report the campaign to secure the necessary funds is well under way.

The program is being financed through local individuals who are signing notes as collateral on which the school athletic commission will borrow the money from local banks.

The Booster club includes members of the Lions club, the Kiwanis club, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the American Legion. No date has been set for construction work to begin. On completion of the work the field will be used during the summer by the general public for night ball games and other events.

cent of corresponding months last year.

Anderson blamed the current shortage largely on higher than normal feeding of cereal to livestock. Farm leaders have stated many farmers have been forced to feed wheat because they were unable to get corn, supplies of which are low.

Many wheat growers have stated that under price ceilings in effect during the past year or so, they could make more money by feeding wheat than by selling the grain for human food.

Even Offer Bonus

The government is attempting to pull wheat from farms and from elevators by offering a bonus of 30 cents a bushel.

The department reported that wheat stocks on April 1 totaled 338,644,000 bushels compared with 542,974,000 a year earlier.

Food officials estimate at least 259,000,000 bushels will be needed for all demands—domestic and foreign—during the April-June quarter.

To get this amount, reserves stocks would have to be reduced to 79,000,000 on July 1 when the new crop will become available in appreciable quantities.

Anderson and department [illegible] officials have stated they doubt it will be possible to reduce the reserves below 125,000,000 bushels.

970-Pound Hog Eases Kentucky Meat Crisis

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 26—The meat shortage received a jolting blow here yesterday.

Tanbark King, a 970-pound hog, was sold at Bourbon stock yards by Louis Payne, Shelbyville, Ky.

Marketing experts said they believed it was the biggest hog ever to pass through the yards and also that the price was the highest ever paid for a porker here.

Tanbark King was chosen senior champion Duroc Jersey boar at last year's Kentucky state fair here.

L. T. Skeffington, marketing specialist, estimated that three-fourths of the hog will go into meat at the purchasing packing plant.

COUPLE LOSE ALL POSSESSIONS IN FIRE

Home of Former Galion Residents Burns Near Cardington.

Special to The Star

GALION, April 26—A former Galion couple, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Myers, lost their home, wedding gifts, clothing and other articles in a fire Wednesday afternoon on the Kenneth Jenkins farm near Cardington.

The fire started in the shingle roof from chimney sparks and was discovered late in the afternoon by Mrs. Myers. Her husband was working at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jenkins, a half mile away, and he and Kenneth Jenkins were summoned, but the fire spread so rapidly that little could be done except to remove the contents of the downstairs rooms.

Possessions of the couple which were in the upstairs, were destroyed by the fire, and the seven-room residence was leveled. The loss was partially covered by insurance. Kenneth Jenkins had purchased the farm about two months ago. Mr. and Mrs. Myers and their small son had lived in the house for about a month. It was their first home since their marriage five years ago. He was discharged from the Army early in February after three years in the service.

Prior to entering the Army, Myers, a civil engineer, was employed in ship yards at Sewickley, Pa. He is the son of Mrs. Emma Wolfelt of Gill avenue, and Mrs. Myers is the former Mary Louise Marsh of Galion, daughter of Mrs. Nova Marsh.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN BUNDENSEN, M.D.

Anemia

Blood is the very stuff of life itself. Though not commonly thought of as an organ, it is as essential as heart or lungs. Indeed, both of the latter exist only as servants to the blood, the one acting merely as a pumping station to keep its life-giving flow full and constant; the other as a commissary to supply it with the oxygen which it carries endlessly to every one of the body's air-greedy tissues.

Thus, it is easy to see the necessity of discovering early anything which lowers the quality of the blood, for anything which does, affects the whole body adversely.

Anemia, or lack of red coloring matter in the blood can readily be discovered by an examination of the blood itself but most people will not think to have such a test made unless they have first suffered some discomfort. Since the blood is such an important and vital fluid, it is wise to know what the early symptoms of anemia are, so that an examination may be made and the condition corrected at once.

The most common and earliest symptoms of which an anemic patient complains, are tiredness and lack of energy, some shortness of breath, rapid and noticeable beating of the heart after physical exertion, and the occasional dizziness. There is rarely any actual pain.

In certain types of anemia, recurrent attacks of soreness of the mouth and tongue are present. Patients frequently think that these symptoms are due to smoking. Other symptoms which may occur are the formation of excessive gas in the bowel, sickness to the stomach, vomiting and loss of appetite, and constipation.

These symptoms develop particularly in the type of anemia in which there is not only a lessening of the coloring in the blood, but also a lack of acid in the stomach.

In most types of anemia, loss of weight does not occur, but it may happen in pernicious anemia, a condition due to the lack of a certain factor or substance found in liver and extracts of stomach tissue. In women, disturbances of the regular periods may occur with anemia.

Skin Changes

As a rule, in the patient with anemia certain changes occur in the appearance of the skin, the type depending on the kind of anemia present. Thus, the general appearance of the skin may be a guide in the diagnosis. However, pallor or paleness of the skin does not necessarily mean anemia.

On the other hand, the severe anemia may be told by the presence of a blueish tinge to the skin called cyanosis due to a lack of oxygen in the tissues, or by jaundice, which is a greenish-yellow discoloration of the skin. In pernicious anemia there may be a pale lemon-yellow color of the skin.

It may be easier to tell whether or not anemia is present by examining the lining membrane of the mouth, lips, and eyes, rather than the appearance of the skin.

Most cases of anemia will respond promptly to treatment, if it is given early. Keep in mind the symptoms of anemia so that when they occur, a blood examination can be made at once.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

"THERE AIN'T NO NEED FOR SCHOOLS"

Even back in the old days when Marion had pot-bellied stoves and open pickle barrels, there were folks who said—"There ain't no need for new schools". But the far-sighted folks voted for them and they got them. AND IN THOSE DAYS MARION HAD THE GREATEST PERCENTAGE OF GROWTH FROM YEAR TO YEAR IN ITS HISTORY. There may even be a few folks now who don't think we need new and better school buildings, but Marion has stood still long enough. Let's get her on her way again.

HARD COAL STRIKE THREATENS NATION

By The Associated Press

HAZLETON, Pa., April 26 — The governing body of Pennsylvania's 75,000 anthracite miners today laid down general contract demands for an unspecified wage boost with decreased working hours and authorized filing of a 30-day strike notice.

The action of the tri-district scale convention was approved by a standing vote with only six of 449 delegates standing to denote opposition. A committee had patterned contract proposals after demands made by negotiators for 400,000 soft coal miners.

The demands will be presented to anthracite operators at talks scheduled to begin at New York on May 10. The AFL-United Mine Workers, hard coal agreement expires May 31.

The convention withheld detailed discussion on contract proposals at suggestion of U M W Chieftain John L. Lewis who said such a discussion would tip off the operators in advance of the UMW's exact demands and "allow them to prepare a defense to our request."

The present contract gives hard coal diggers $2.39 daily for a seven-hour five-day work week and time and a half for overtime. They now worked six days, receiving $14.34 weekly.

MOOSE ARE ON LOOSE

By The Associated Press

WHITEFISH, Mont.—Moose in the woods of northwest Montana are feeling their oats.

Dr. J. S. McFarland, former state game warden, reported one attacked his automobile on a road in the North Fork country, but sensibly desisted when it discovered the car could not be butted off the highway.

Later, one challenged a car driven by Rancher Louie Vaverland and Vaverland had to kill the animal, Deputy Game Warden Ross Wilson said.

Snakes are cold-blooded or ectothermic.

ENGINEER HITS PLAN OF OHIO DAM FOES

By The Associated Press

ZANESVILLE, O., April 26—Members of the Licking Valley Protective association today were studying figures purporting to show that their substitute plan for the proposed $10,000,000 Dillon dam would be three times more costly.

The association's 13-dam alternate to the single dam plan would cost $28,634,000, Col. Frank Gano, Huntington district engineer, told members at a meeting yesterday. He added that the alternate proposal would require moving 360 dwellings against 265 under present plans.

Yesterday's conference was the result of a protest by the association before the house flood control committee last week. There, members claimed to have sidetracked the single project between Zanesville and Newark.

In Columbus, Col. R. G. West, assistant river division engineer, said congress had not indicated that it wanted the dam stopped. Relocation work on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad tracks in the valley, he said, is continuing.

"The only thing we can recommend is to continue the Dillon plan as the most economical," He said.

open their own case, for wage increases higher than the 16 cents an hour boost awarded them by arbitration boards on April 3.

Since last July 24 all of the rail unions have been seeking wage increases and changes in working rules. The trainmen and engineers, insisting on keeping the two issues together, declined arbitration, called their strike and saw their case go before a fact-finding board. The other 18 organizations accepted arbitration of the wage demands by two arbitration boards, not pressing the rules changes.

All the wage demands were closely parallel—30 cents an hour for the non-operating men, $2.50 a day for the three operating groups which accepted arbitration, and an average of 25 per cent for the trainmen and engineers, working out to about the same raise.

Awards in each case amounted to 16 cents an hour. Already the 15 non-operating unions have filed notice they will reopen their case for an additional 14 cents. The engineers and firemen, the conductors and the trainmen said they would file their demand "for further increases" on May 3.

Russia has come out against any inquiry or investigation.

Soviet Delegate Andrei A Gromyko declared flatly during yesterday's debate he would not vote for any investigation such as that proposed by Hoegson. As a result, most of the delegates had given up hope for unanimity.

The Australian proposal, as amended up to the close of yesterday's session, called for:

1. Creation of a five-man subcommittee to investigate whether the situation in Spain endangers international peace and security.

2 A declaration, similar to those made at Potsdam, San Francisco and London, condemning the Franco regime.

This subcommittee would collect all pertinent evidence and documents which are available and sift the facts for presentation to the council as a whole. It would have no authority to make recommendations.

Source of Dispute

The latter point is where the controversy arises. The French and Polish delegates recommended the subcommittee be instructed to try to work out "practical measures" to be taken against the Franco regime, with the view of evolving a measure the council could adopt unanimously.

Gromyko said he would support such a proposal, although he was opposed to a subcommittee which would be limited to making an investigation.

CANDIDATES INITIATED

Three candidates for membership were initiated when members of Ladies' Auxiliary to Buckeye Aerie No. 337, Fraternal Order of Eagles, met Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Gladys Jones was installed as trustee for two years. Nomination of officers for next year was held and election will be conducted at the next meeting May 9. An invitation was received from the Luna auxiliary to attend a meeting there Sunday afternoon and several are planning to go. The attendance award was won by Mrs. Elma Whiteamire. The social committee, with Mrs. Louise Felter in charge, served refreshments and gifts were presented to those in attendance who celebrated birthday anniversaries in April.

Sir Walter Raleigh was beheaded as a spy.

OHIO PROBES LIQUOR LEAKS

State Acts To Halt Illegal Flow of Beverages to Nearby States.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., April 26 — The Ohio liquor control department acted today to halt alleged bootlegging of its unrationed whisky and gin supplies into neighboring states, especially West Virginia, by stopping all case-lot sales of the two varieties and requiring individual purchasers to show their ration cards.

A. I. Balmert, assistant director, sent a bulletin to all district supervisors, retail and wholesale store managers, and state liquor agencies declaring:

"From certain sections of the state we have complaints that our supply of unrationed whisky and dry gin is falling into the hands of bootleggers and out-of-state purchasers. Due to our inability at this time to secure greater quantities * * * to supply our needs, it therefore becomes necessary, until further notice, to restrict sales at retail."

Although most whisky is rationed in Ohio, brands made from cane spirits as well as gins, rums and brandies have been sold without restriction. Balmert said there was no way of estimating how much of the unrationed varieties was finding it way across the Ohio river into West Virginia and Kentucky but added that retail permit holders had filed numerous complaints of inability to buy them.

"The situation seems especially bad in eastern Ohio, in cities such as Steubenville, Bellaire, and the like," Balmert said. "A lot also gets through Ironton into Kentucky."

Seek Showdown

Both Byrnes and Bidault are expected to press for Russian reconsideration, with Bidault reportedly ready to demand that a decision on the German issue be made today.

Molotov made no explanation yesterday of his reversal on allowing French observers to participate in discussion of the Balkan and Finland treaties. Under previous plans, adopted at Moscow last December, France was to participate only in the writing of the Italian treaty.

After Molotov's withdrawal of Soviet objections, the ministers decided that all four countries would attend discussions on all matters before the conference, but that votes would be limited to nations which had signed the armistice with the former enemy states involved.

Midland Service Corp. Names New Manager

Harold F. Henry of 135 Johnson street has taken over the operation of the Midland Service Corp., 127 South State street, replacing Bob Cunningham, who resigned recently to open a new real estate and insurance office.

Before entering the Navy in 1943 Mr. Henry was for nine years operator of a service station at Columbia and Prospect streets. He was discharged from the Navy Dec. 8, 1945.

with other plotters, he has related previously.

The American prosecution scored a coup by allowing Gisevius to be called as a defense witness. Counsel for Wilhelm Frick, once "protector of Bohemia and Moravia," said they had called him because Gisevius formerly worked for Frick in the Ministry of Interior.

Once on the stand, Gisevius started disclosing German secrets. His testimony was particularly revealing about Hermann Goering, Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel and Ernst Kaltenbrunner, although it scorched virtually every defendant except Hjalmar Schacht, once Reichsbank president. Gisevius identified Schacht as a companion plotter against Hitler.

Earlier in the day, Gisevius looked straight at Keitel and swore the former chief of the German army perverted his own and his army's honor by threatening subordinate officers who protested Gestapo atrocities.

In his third day on the stand before the international military tribunal, the witness also indicated Col Gen. Gustav Jodl, last chief of staff of the German army, was a man "who had tremendous and disastrous influence with Hitler."

Suppressed Reports

"Keitel got detailed reports of atrocities—of mass murders in Poland, extermination of Jews, murders in Russia, of gas chambers and murder factories and of the persecution of churches," the former German secret police official declared under cross-examination by Justice Robert H. Jackson, chief U. S. prosecutor.

"They were prepared and submitted to him by Canaris (Admiral Walter Wilhelm Canaris, chief of the wehrmacht's counter-intelligence) and Canaris' chief of staff," said Gisevius, summoned as a defense witness.

"these men pledged with Keitel to transmit them to Hitler and intervene to have the atrocities stopped. He was the only channel to Hitler.

"But Keitel held back reports and instead of protecting officers who protested these Gestapo crimes he repeatedly threatened them with dismissal and with Gestapo punishment. He actually fired many," Gisevius told the tribunal."

Prosecution sources regarded the testimony as particularly damaging to Keitel, who maintained in his defense that he was only a professional soldier carrying out military orders and was unaware of many Nazi excesses.

ignored the request for a review of intended shipments.

Hilldring asserted shipments actually had fallen short of minimum requirements approved by the commission. He likewise asserted in effect that a "no priority" policy for Japan had been pursued all along.

He later issued a supplementary statement declaring that food allocations to Japan "are, of course, subject to continuing review in the light of developing conditions."

British Move May Bring New Clash

By The Associated Press

TOKYO, April 26 — A British request for information on the Allied food policy in Japan developed today a strong possibility of another clash between the Allied four-power council and General MacArthur.

The British request stood out sharply in the light of the far eastern commission's recommendation that the United States send only enough food to Japan to "safeguard the Allied occupation forces." MacArthur's headquarters replied that Japan could not raise enough food in 1946 to meet the minimum needs of its people on "a disease and unrest basis."

BOOM BEGINS FOR PATTERSON

Congressmen Favor Secretary of War for Chief Justice; Truman Silent.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 26 — A quiet boom for the appointment of Secretary of War Robert P Patterson as Chief Justice of the United States is under way on Capitol Hill today with some Democratic and Republican support.

But reporters accompanying President Truman on his vacation cruise—interrupted yesterday to permit the Chief Executive to attend funeral services for Harlan F. Stone—said they had been told by White House aides the President thus far had given no consideration to a successor.

Most speculation has centered around the idea that Mr. Truman might elevate a sitting justice to the post Stone held and designate a Republican to the vacancy thus created. Justices Robert H Jackson, Stanley F Reed, William O. Douglas and Hugo L. Black all have been mentioned in this connection.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) noted that if Mr. Truman followed this procedure it would be the exception, rather than the rule.

Taft said his father, while President first broke the precedent by elevating Edgar D White, a Louisiana Democrat, from associate to Chief Justice. President Roosevelt followed suit 31 years later by appointing Stone, a Republican.

No other Chief Justice was a member of the court at the time of his appointment.

Taft told a reporter he thought Patterson would be acceptable to senate Republicans, should Mr Truman decide to name him.

An administration supporter, who asked not to be quoted by name, said it was his understanding that Patterson, a Republican and a former circuit court of appeals judge, had been offered a place on the high bench before Justice Harold H. Burton was named from the senate.

Because he lacked an experienced man to take Patterson's place in the cabinet, however, the President was reported to have reconsidered with an explanation of why he was doing so. There was speculation that he might now reopen discussions with Patterson.

CITY POLICE TAKE FCC RADIO TESTS

Seek To Make All Eligible To Operate Station.

Seven employes of the city police department took federal communication commission examinations for restricted telephone operator licenses Thursday in the municipal courtroom, it was announced by Chief of Police William E. Marks today.

If all the applicants pass, Chief Marks said, it will make the police force 100 per cent eligible to operate police radio equipment. Most of the applicants were newly appointed patrolmen and those recently returned from the armed forces.

Taking the test were patrolmen Floyd Wilson, Virgil Campbell, George Manley, Lew Shedaker, John Richardson and Carl McDaniel and police clerk Irene Gantt. The examination papers will be sent to Detroit for grading. Last examination was given about four years ago, Chief Marks said. The test was given under the supervision of Edwin B Spohn, city solicitor, and was one and a half hours long.

Chief Marks said the restricted licenses held by the members of the police force do not permit them to do repair work on the police radios. The examination covered the field of correct announcing, identification and other radio procedure laid down by the FCC.

The police radio system was installed about six years ago, according to Chief Marks and will soon include three cars and two motorcycles. The cars are equipped with two way radio and the motorcycles with one way. The police radio station's call letters are WJJL. It has a power of 200 watts.

Joe Tinker Tells Story of Feud with Evers

"Trapping" Broke Up Long Silence of Two-Thirds of Famous Double Play Combine.

—AP Newsfeatures

TALLAHASSE, Fla. — Joe Tinker says the old story that he also Johnny Evers played for years in the famous Chicago Cubs' Tinker-Evers-Chance infield without speaking "has kinda grown with the years."

He recalls their relations this way.

"We didn't get along at all when we first played together so decided we'd better work on the field if we just kept our mouths shut and didn't even speak.

"I used to take the signs from the catcher on steals and would signal Evers what to do. This actually went on for two years without a word between us, although I believe we led the league in double plays both seasons.

"A simple little incident patched things up.

"We were playing in Philadelphia and it was before the infield fly rule—you could trap a fly ball and make a double play in those days.

"With a runner on first, the batter popped one straight up in the air towards me. Just as I was about to catch it Evers yelled 'trap it!'

"I let it hit the ground and it went through me for a double.

"Chance, who was the manager, wanted to know what had happened as we came in to the bench a few minutes later. When I told him he said there would be no more 'trapping' on the Chicago team.

"The whole thing struck the rest of the gang as funny that night at the hotel, especially the newspaper boys and Evers. Soon we were all laughing and the scores decided it was a good time to get us to make up.

"We shook hands, had a couple of beers together and have been friends ever since."

NAMED TO BASEBALL'S HALL OF FAME—Johnny Evers (above), member of the famous Chicago Cubs' double play combination of Tinker-to-Evers-to-Chance, was among 11 new members elected to baseball's hall of fame at Cooperstown, N. Y. He is shown in Albany, N. Y., where he has been bedridden for several years. He said he was very glad his old teammates, Joe Tinker annd Frank Chance, were selected also. Selections were made by a special old-timers committee, named by the late Commissioner K. M. Landis to honor players who might otherwise never be elected. (Associated Press Wirephoto)

WOMEN SET TO OPEN HEADPIN TOURNEY

More Than 100 In Competition Starting Tomorrow.

More than 100 women bowlers plan to enter a women's headpin tournament starting tomorrow at Marion Recreation alleys, Jim Kayatin, proprietor of the alleys and organizer of the tournament, announced today.

A new type of tournament for Marion, headpin tournaments have proved very popular in Akron, Dayton and other Ohio cities, Kayatin says. It will start Saturday at noon and will continue through midnight May 5.

In a headpin tourney the bowler gets only one ball a frame, or 12 during a game. He must hit the head pin, which is painted red for better visability, or he gets no credit for the frame. A perfect game is 120. Games will be bowled in units of three and prizes will be given for high single game high second game and third game of a three-game series, high first and third, lowest game and several other combinations. Any Marion woman bowler is eligible. It is not necessary to belong to a league. Reservations are not needed to roll.

Many members of the Ladies' All Star league, Monday Night Ladies' league and Universal Cooler Women's league, as well as independent bowlers have entered so far, Kayatin said.

First prize will be a bowling ball donated by the Marion Recreation alleys and second prize will be a bowling bag donated by the Palace Recreation alleys. Several other cash prizes and gifts of merchandise have been given by local merchants.

The first oil well in the United States was sunk in 1859 in Oil Creek, Pa.

TRIBE CALLS FELLER TO COOL WHITE SOX

Chicago Uncorks 17 Hits To Blast Indians 11-2.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, April 26 — The Cleveland Indians called on Bobby Feller, their pitching mainstay, today in an effort to silence the Chicago White Sox and snap a three-game losing streak for the Tribe.

Feller, who has allowed only two earned runs in 19 innings this season, beat the Sox, 1 to 0, in a season opener at Chicago, but lost a 10-inning, 3 to 2 verdict to the Detroit Tigers last Sunday.

Joe Hayes, right hander, was given the mound assignment for Chicago. He has fully recovered from a broken ankle received last season.

Chicago pounded four Tribe hurlers yesterday for 17 hits in winning a 11 to 2 decision behind nine-hit pitching by Ed Lopat, who made three singles in four trips to the plate, shut the Indians out until the eighth when a triple by Les Fleming drove in Pat Seerey.

Allie Reynolds started for Cleveland, but left in the third when a Chicago uprising produced five runs. Pete Center, Vic Johnson and Johnny Podgajny followed him to the mound.

Chicago sent another man home in the fifth and repeated in the seventh and eighth. Four hits in the ninth, including a triple by Thurman Tucker, added three more tallies.

Cleveland scored its second and final run in the final frame when Felix Mackiewicz singled to score Ray Mack.

Joe Birmingham Dies; Oldtime Tribe Boss

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, April 26 — Joe (Dode) Birmingham, who died late Wednesday night in Tampico, Mexico, is remembered here as a former playing manager of the Cleveland Baseball club.

At the time of his death, which was caused by a heart attack, Birmingham was serving as an umpire in the Mexican league. He was about 60 years old.

A native of Elmira, N. Y., Birmingham began his playing career there and came up to the Cleveland club, then known as the Naps. In the latter part of the 1906 season, as a centerfielder.

In 1912 he became a playing manager, succeeding Harry Davis, and continued in that role until the end of the 1914 race. In 1915 when the club became the Indians, he piloted the squad from the bench, and during the season was replaced by Lee Fohl.

Hal Grabs Third Straight As Hank Has Perfect Day

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Hurricane Hal Newhouser and Hammering Hank Greenberg, a pair of old hands at coming through in the clutch for the world champion Detroit Tigers, are still up to their old tricks and as a result the Bengals are reposing unmolested today at the top of the American league.

The two Tiger sluggers, who combined their special talents—Greenberg with a grand slam homer and Newhouser with a splendid relief job—to defeat the St. Louis Browns in the final game of the 1945 season for the American league flag, collaborated once more yesterday to vanquish the Browns again 6-5.

The victory enabled the Tigers to take over undisputed possession of first place from the New York Yankees and dropped into a second place tie with Boston by losing to the Red Sox 12-5.

No. 3 for Hal

Newhouser despite one bad inning in which he yielded all the enemy runs, coursed his way to his third straight triumph of the young season. He gave up seven hits in pitching his third complete game and fanned seven to increase his strikeout output to 22 in 27 frames.

Greenberg enjoyed a perfect day at the dish with two doubles, a single and a free ticket to first. The reconverted first baseman batted in a run and scored two more including the important tying marker in the eighth. A single by Birdie Tebbetts followed a moment later to send in Roy Cullenbine with the winning run. Greenberg's trio of base knocks raised his eight-game batting average to a gaudy .400 with seven of his nine hits good for extra bases.

Led by Johnny Peaky and Eddie Pellagrini, the Red Sox reversed Yesterday's 12-5 beating by pounding four New York hurlers for 13 hits including a homer, triple and double by Pellagrini and two doubles and a brace of singles by Peaky. Right Joe Dobson held the Yanks to nine hits for his second mound triumph.

Dodgers Take Over

Brooklyn's dazzling Dodgers moved into undisputed possession of first place in the National league without even having to lift a little finger as the St. Louis Cardinals, who shared the top berth with the Brooks slid down to second spot by dropping to the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-3.

A long home run belt by Pittsburgh's Ralph Kiner that travelled fully 450 feet literally knocked the cards out of the lead. Kiner's blow came with one on in the third and tagged Harry (The Cat) Breecheen with his second defeat of the season. Ken Heintzelman, who handed the Redbirds their other loss on opening day in St. Louis, also was returned the winner although he was forced to leave in the seventh inning due to a blistered finger.

The Cincinnati Reds squashed their 1945 Nemesis, the Chicago Cubs, for the first time in four meetings this season with a 7-5 victory. Three Cub muscles gave the Reds as many runs in the seventh inning and chased starter Hank Borrowy for the second straight time this year. It was only the Reds' second win over the Bruins in 26 meetings over a two-year-span. Cub rookie outfielder Marv Rickert's perfect five for five went to waste.

Miller in RBI Lead

Cincinnati may be next to last in the standings but one Redleg is without peer—for the moment—in the National league.

The top-notcher is Eddie Miller, veteran shortstop, who drove in three runs yesterday to boost his RBI total to 11—two more than the tied runners-up Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals and Tommy Holmes of the Boston Braves.

Here's what happened in the stretch frame as Cincinnati came to bat trailing 4-3.

Pitcher Johnny Hetki who had relieved Buddy Walters at the start of the fifth, was safe on Bob Sturgeon's error at short. Lonnie Frey and Mike McCormick singled to load the bases.

Hetki scored as the opposing hurler, Hank Borrowy, fumbled Grady Hatton's roller. Frey was forced at the plate but McCormick and Hatton scored as catcher Tommy Livingston threw into right field trying for a double play.

Cincinnati got 10 hits off Borrowy and his successors, Paul Erickson and Bush, one less than Chicago got off Bucky Walters, Hetki and Clayton Lambert.

The New York Giants suffered a blow as they bowed to the Boston Braves for the second straight time, 5-4.

The Chicago White Sox finally combined right pitching and stout hitting as they thrashed the Cleveland Indians 11-2 on a 17-hit assault.

Marion Golfers Jam Links In Peacetime Sports Boom

Golf in Marion is on the upswing. With most wartime hindrances removed, officials of both the Mar-O-Del and Country club courses report near-record attendance within the last two weeks. This is the first full peacetime season since 1941.

Clubs are still scarce but golf balls are beginning to be plentiful. All now used are synthetic but by June 1 both courses will have natural rubber balls.

The courses themselves are in the best shape for this time of year they have ever been. Mar-O-Del officials report their course is "in the best shape in the history of the course," while Country club officials describe theirs as A-1."

Just Like Summer

Both report heavy week day play with that at the Country club termed equal to mid-summer averages. April 14 the Country club had one of their biggest attendances on record, 80, while April 7 Mar-O-Del had 150 persons go around the course. Officials said that was the best figure in 10 years.

The return of veterans and, in the case of Mar-O-Del, an influx of out-of-towners is attributed as the cause of the jump in attendance. Women are out in greater numbers than ever before at both courses.

At Mar-O-Del for a short nine-hole round two scores of 35 have been turned in and Bud Baker, the club's professional, has turned in a 36. He holds the course record of 32. Par is 37.

At the Country club for the 18-hole round scores of 83, 93, 94 and 96 have been turned in. Par is 74.

While the Country club itself has not yet officially opened, the men's locker rooms will be open Saturday. Both pro shops report a land office business in the repairing of clubs.

Both Plan Improvements

Both clubs plan installing new equipment and the overhauling of old. Mar-O-Del has changed the water system and is expecting to receive two new fairway mowers in the near future. The Country club's equipment and installations will be thoroughly overhauled.

Tournaments at Mar-O-Del will probably start about Decoration day, officials said. While no dates have yet been set at Country club, Al Polagyi, the professional, is planning a series of tournaments to start when weather permits.

He has tentatively lined up blind bogey, flag, blind partners, poker hand, match play against par, sweepstakes, and mixed foursome tournaments.

St. Paul Hot After Millers for A.A. Lead

By The Associated Press

Eric Tipton's eighth inning grand slam home run yesterday put St. Paul right on the heels of Minneapolis for the American Association lead.

Tipton's circuit smash broke up a 4 to 4 tie between St. Paul and Kansas City, the Saints winning 9 to 5, to move into second place, a half game behind leading Minneapolis. Milwaukee jumped out of the cellar into sixth place by defeating the Millers, 3 to 0.

At Toledo, the Mud Hens made it three in a row beating Louisville 6 to 4 while at Columbus, Indianapolis pounded a 10 to 1 win over the Red Birds.

Quinn To See About Luring Big Leaguers Here for Exhibition

J. A. (Boo) Quinn, former Marion baseball player recently elected to baseball's honor roll, will see what he can do about bringing a major league team to Marion for an exhibition game, according to a letter sent to Bill Hogan of the Kumfort Hotel. Hogan is a former teammate of Quinn and longtime friend and correspondent.

Quinn is the former president of the Boston Braves, a position now held by his son John.

Hogan is an old time player who starred with Marion High school about 1900 although he attended St. Mary when it had no team. He organized a ball team known as "Hogan's Runts" later played in the old Western league and finished his 15-year career with a four-year period with the Nebraska Indians.

Lord Boswell Wins, Favored for Derby

By The Associated Press

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 26—This, said Eddie Arcaro, beaming, is "one helluva horse when you dig into him."

Eddie's won three Kentucky Derbies and is trying for a fourth this year. No jockey has won four derbies since the birth of the race in 1875.

Eddie was beaming because he'd just steered the stretch-sizzler, Lord Boswell, to a neck decision in the Blue Grass stakes at Keeneland, which immediately put Boswell's bouncing boy front and center as the Derby favorite. And the way he came from far back to hang his stylish snout on the wire made it look as if Eddie might get that fourth win at Churchill Downs May 4.

WMRN Broadcasts Slugfest Tonight

Kayo-minded Charley Fusari and Mexico's firebrand, Humberto Zavala (above) headline the fistic menu in New York tonight. Popular Bill Corum and fast-talking Don Dunphy will report this ten-round welter attraction over the ABC network.

Fusari, New Jersey's newest bid for high welter honors, has an unbeaten record of 40 fights, with 27 knockouts. A straight, stand-up fighter, the Jerseyite has devastating dynamite in both mitts. He also boxes skillfully.

In facing Zavala, Fusari tackles a burst of fury, who always turns in a sharp performance. Humberto is a slam-bang fighter and master of the "switch" style which confuses many opponents. The sock trade looks for a rip-snorter.

Irish To Face Marysville Ac in Opening Tilt Here Saturd

Noel Howard, Union Co. Flash, Will Test First St. Mary in Years.

St. Mary's team may run into a hornet's nest in their first ba game of the season's recent history Saturday at 2:30 against Mary at Lincoln park. The chief stinger probably will be a sou pitcher named Noel Howard.

This 166-pound Union county senior has a very fast ba a lot of control. He has pitched two complete games for Mar this year and part of another. In that time he has walked only one man.

Coach Praises Star

Twice this season Marysville has trounced Richwood 5-0 and 8-0 with Howard doing the pitching. In these games he was never behind the batter. Coach Will Wagner of Marysville says he has never seen a class C or D professional pitcher with as much on the ball.

Against Howard, Irish Coach Neal Irvin will start Tom Moran. Moran has looked very good in workouts, Irvin reports, and has a lot of books on the side of batters up. Charles Dunn will be his battery mate.

The Irish mentor will start Bob Irvin at first base, Edmund Burke at second, John Bandauf at third, Bob Wintersteen at shortstop, Gene Norris or Dan Smith in left field, Boo Prunk in center and either Fred Sampson or Boo Armbruster in right.

Relief pitcher Walter Anderson suffered a wrist injury in football last season and may not be able to do any of the hurling Saturday. Outfielder Dan Smith will double on relief pitching duties.

Irvin Confident

Irvin said today that if the club can click well on fielding and hitting, St. Mary will take them, Howard or no Howard.

Wagner said Don Smith will pitch Howard Saturday. He reports that the two work very well together.

At first base he will start Bob Shanks, Bill Wall will be on second, Dean Schneiderer on third, Richard Hornbeck at shortstop, Dick Grove in the left field, "Red" Grimes in center and Dale Bell in right. Schneiderer is also a relief pitcher.

Harding Nine Blasts Galion 8-3; Thinclads Crushed by Pleasant 65-26

Baseball Banquet's Sponsors Yield To Clamor of Gal Fans

Carnival "Stag" Monday Night To Be Wide Open to Women Followers and Friends.

The power of the feminine side of sports is not to be ignored, baseball leaders have learned.

Changing their original plan to keep the first annual baseball banquet at Masonic Temple Monday at 6:30 p. m. a stag affair, the executive council now announces women baseball fans would be admitted.

The announcement was made previously that women would be admitted, the council was deluged with requests to relent.

Among those that women make the most rabid fans the council decided to let them in. This applies to scores of male fans likewise.

Dayton too has solved its baseball players' housing problem Lew Mauck of that city last February offered to accommodate 15 players at his home. The Indians' management snapped up his offer and now the ball players are living at the Buck home—four to a room.

Rooms are reported to be rather crowded but equipped with, comfortable beds.

Zanesville won another exhibition game Tuesday, taking Muskingum College 12 to 8. Last year's stars Maynard DeWitt and George Marala participated. DeWitt got a single in five times at the plate while Marala went hitless in two trips.

Bliss School granted six hits and two runs in the five innings he worked while southpaw Bill Huguenin gave up three hits and six runs in three innings. The game was called in the eighth because of rain.

ISSUES CHALLENGE

Henry Cotton, British Open golf champion now holding down two professional jobs in two countries, would like to challenge American golfers with Byron Nelson and Ben Hogan particularly in mind. He is now pro at the Royal Mid-Surrey in London and at the Monte Carlo in southern France. Always unorthodox in his ideas, Cotton has been golfing since his early 'teens.

Slugging Presidents Avoid Trouble After First Inning

By JIM DARBY

Harding's Prexies won their second baseball game of the season over Galion 8 to 3 yesterday at Galion. Owens, who went the seven inning distance, was credited with victory.

Harding started off well in the first inning with two runs. Weber, first man up, singled and then stole second. Brown struck out. Taylor walked and on a double steal took second while Weber headed for third. Lee came up and singled to score Weber and Taylor.

Galion made their only threat in the first. Tuscan singled, Price did likewise. Heskett hit a grounder and got on first on a fielder's choice while Tuscan was forced out at third.

Pitcher Hits Homer

Then McGuire, starting pitcher who batted in the clean-up spot, came up. He slammed one out of the park to score three runs. It was Galion's swan song.

Although Owens allowed seven more hits during the next six innings he was never in trouble again.

Harding got back in the ball game to stay in the fourth inning. Hill walked, Mitchell struck out, Huddle singled and Ralston blasted out a triple to score Hill and Huddle. A moment later he came in himself on Owens long fly to the outfield.

3 in Final Frame

The Prexies cinched the game in the last inning with three more runs. Brown and Taylor walked and came home on Lee's rousing double. Lee stole third base and came in on Hill's fly to right field.

Morrow Co. Reports Election News Scarce

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD, April 26—With the May 7 primaries less than two weeks away there appears to be very little interest in the coming Morrow county elections, Nelson Campbell, clerk of the election board, reports.

Reason for the quiet is believed due to the fact that there is only one local contest. J. Wesley Masters, incumbent, John W. Osborn and F. O. Van Sickle are all up for nomination on the Republican ballot for representative to the general assembly.

William McKinley Thomas is unopposed for the nomination for county commissioner and Harold Taylor is unopposed for the nomination for county auditor. Both are on the Republican primary ballot and are present holders of the offices.

Only one candidate is listed on the Democratic primary ballot as far county elections are concerned. John M. Benson is seeking the nomination for representative to the general assembly.

Benson and Osborn are both veterans of World War II and this is their first experience in politics.

SELECTIVE DEMAND LIFTS SOME STOCKS

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 26—Selective demand continued to bolster parts of today's stock market although most steels, motors, rails and industrial leaders backed into further losing territory.

The persistent decline of government bonds again tended to chill inflation psychology as a buying incentive. The coal strike and, with scattered exceptions, pessimistic first quarter statements, also acted to restrain potential investors. Individual situations inspired bids for favorites.

Dealings slowed appreciably. Losses of fractions to a point or so predominated near the fourth hour.

United Biscuit jumped more than 3 points to a new high at 51 on a favorable earning showing. Third Avenue common pushed up on refinancing talk.

LOVE'S FAIR HORIZON

By ADELE GARRISON

As Mary made her laughing appeal to her husband, I involuntarily put my hands up to my head. I felt that I needed assurance that it was really fastened on instead of spinning off into space.

For fantastic as had been Mary's "offensive" against Olina's display of the heirloom bethrothal ring of the kings of Trees, with its implied slur against the girl who once had been engaged to King Georges, it was as nothing to me beside the fact that Mary had turned to her husband in apparently the closest bonds of marital bliss, and challenged him to remember an episode which we all had thought to be a veritable "thorn in his flesh."

No Other Explanation

She must have told Noel about Olina's plan! There was no other explanation of her appeal to him. I glanced furtively at him, and saw that the serenity of his face and eyes at which I had wondered was still unmarred by even a frown. Instead, there was mirthful tenderness in his eyes as he answered her.

"Do I remember? Could I ever forget? Weren't we the young fools then, Lina?"

I hardly dared draw my breath as I waited for Olina's answer, and guessed that the others were experiencing the same sensation of breathlessness. It was as if Mary, Olina and Noel were actors in an absorbing scene from a drama, and the rest of us were spectators.

Recovered Herself

But Olina had recovered herself by this time, and though she had not rehearsed her lines as I guessed Mary and Noel had, she was able to catch a cue thrown to her, and she laughed as she answered her step-brother.

"That is putting it very mildly, Noel," she said. "But—I don't understand. Georges didn't have this ring over here with him at that time."

"Why, of course he didn't, goose," Mary said, with delicate amused scorn. "Don't you remember, at the time those twisted engagements went into effect, Noel and I didn't have the slightest idea that you were a princess of Transvania and Georges was heir to the throne of Trees? And of incognito, didn't lug any of the course, Georges, being over here crown jools along with him.

"So," she went on with a tinkling laugh, "he and Noel hied themselves down to Fifth Avenoo, Noo Yawk, and blew themselves to diamond engagement rings for you and me."

Mock Anger

"And nearly put ourselves into bankruptcy, as I remembered," Noel said, and Mary turned on him with mock anger.

"Why you uncouth, ungallant so-and-so and such-and-such. I'm ashamed of you!" she declaimed. But she flashed a merry, loving glance at him as she spoke, and he smiled back at her, while I felt more bewildered than ever.

"Then," Mary went on, "Georges decided to divulge his real identity, and for about two or three weeks, I toyed with the idea of being a real queen on a throne with a crown 'n' everything. Georges used to describe the crown jools, and especially this betrothal ring, which he said he was going to bring over and put upon the third finger of my left hand."

Dared Not Look

I dared not look at Olina's face as Mary rattled on. Indeed, I do not think a single pair of eyes rested on her face. But we all watched Mary, and I, for one, hoped that the former princess would be able to pull herself together and save the situation, as she alone could.

"Then," Mary said, "the lid blew off, everything went up in steam, and when we settled back again, we were switched safely on the tracks where we really belonged,—you, Lina, with Georges, and Noel with me.

"And wasn't it a mercy we did?" she philosophized. "What a crazy queen I would have made! They'd be picking up the pieces of the throne to this day! I've been bad enough medicine for my own darling Noel, but at least he didn't have any kingly dignity for me to chop into mincemeat. That's one of the blessings you can count, husband mine."

YES, CIVILIANS TRY REAL HARD! THEY LISTEN WHILE YOU READ OFF YOUR RIBBONS—AND OFTEN THEY'RE ACTUALLY INTERESTED...
THEN, TOWARD THE END OF YOUR TERMINAL LEAVE, LITTLE THINGS BEGIN TO HAPPEN... GIRLS WILL CHANGE THE SUBJECT RIGHT IN THE MIDDLE OF YOUR DESCRIPTION OF A FIGHT...
WHEN YOU GET INTO CIVVIES YOU ARE STRICTLY PART OF THE OFFSTAGE CROWD NOISE... SOON YOU START HUDDLING IN CORNERS AT PARTIES WITH THE OTHER RUPTURED DUCK JOKERS... THEN IT HAPPENS... YOU EITHER TAKE THE OLD JOB AND FORGET YOUR BIG SCHEMES—OR YOU BREAK LOOSE... I GUESS WE RAN OUR LAST REEL AT THE START OF THE PICTURE!

Yorkshire Unhappy As England Digs Up Famed Park for Coal

By HELEN CAMP
Associated Press Writer

WENTWORTH, YORKSHIRE, England, April 26 — Scores of people come daily to stand and look at excavations on the historic rolling acres of Wentworth Woodhouse, Yorkshire estate of Earl Fitzwilliam.

They are not ordinary persons, picnics idly at ordinary excavations. They are the little folk of Wentworth watching the last of their scenic landmarks being torn up for open surface coal mining.

Deer scamper away from the bulldozers, big trees come crashing down, rhododendron bushes are uprooted, jonquils and little white star flowers are crushed under tractors.

It's like turning the Roosevelt estate at Hyde Park, N. Y., into a colliery. But it is part of the program to get more and more coal out of England and to relieve the "crucial" mining situation.

Solemnly, a Wentworth miner points in the direction of a huge steam shovel digging more than 50 feet underground to the layer of soft coal.

"It's not even proper coal they are getting," he said. "It's nothing but dirt. I wouldn't burn it myself."

"It was the only bit of scenery we had around here," his companion grumbled, watching a 60-foot beech tree crash to the ground. "Now they're taking it from us."

For years the people of Wentworth—mostly poor miners—have accepted having their fields and hills and woods plowed under for open surface or strip mining. They didn't object when the destructive shovels first entered the Wentworth estate two years ago. But as the mining project crept nearer the famed gardens and deer park they started a fuss heard all over Yorkshire.

They protested through mining associations, the press, the house of commons, they asked if underground mining couldn't be used to save the park surface. The owner of the estate, Earl Fitzwilliam, made a last appeal to the prime minister.

The outcome of the interview was not announced. But Minister of Fuel Emmanuel Shinwell said mining in Wentworth park would "proceed as planned." The coal could be removed and the land reconstructed, he said, in "a twelvemonth."

One little man with a heavy Scottish accent packed dirt around some uprooted white star flowers and placed them beside daffodils he'd collected earlier.

"I'll save these anyway," he said. And then, looking at the solemn-faced bystanders, "to the people around here Earl Fitzwilliam is their king. They think it's a crime to tear up his park."

The first constitution of Chile was promulgated in 1822.

Chile has an area of 286,396 square miles.

NEARLY 3,000 PUPILS GIVEN X-RAY TESTS

Mobile Unit at Harding Gym Again Today.

Nearly 3,000 junior and senior high school pupils from city and county schools have been given X-ray tests in the first three days of the Marion County Anti-tuberculosis league's mass X-ray program, according to league officials today.

During yesterday's schedule 1,343 pupils at Harding High and Central Junior High were X-rayed at the Harding High school gymnasium and between 40 and 50 persons took tests at last night's public session, according to reports.

The league's mobile X-ray unit was at the Harding gym again this morning where it checked students from the upper six grades of St. Mary and the balance of pupils of Central Junior High. This afternoon the unit moved to LaRue where it was examining pupils from LaRue, Montgomery and New Bloomington schools. Tonight the X-ray program will close with a public examination at LaRue between 7 and 8 p. m. All pre-school children are examined free and adults pay 75c to cover the cost of materials used in the X-rays.

Total number so far X-rayed is 2,894. Nearly 500 more are expected to be checked during today's program. The testing service is sponsored by the Anti-tuberculosis league with the cooperation of the boards of health and education. Where symptoms of tuberculosis are found students are referred to their family physicians.

JAP REDS COMPLAIN IN CABINET CRISIS

By The Associated Press

TOKYO, April 26—Amid Communist complaints that they were being railroaded out of participation in choice of a new premier, Japan's six-party committee adjourned its second meeting today without tangible progress toward solving the nation's festering political crisis.

At the height of the two-hour session, Kyuichi Tokuda, secretary-general of the Communist party, shouted "the next cabinet is being sold on the black market."

Ichiro Kawasco, Liberal party whip, and Tetsu Katayama, secretary-general of the Social Democrats, scheduled their sixth conference this afternoon, continuing their search for a basis of cooperation between these two parties. Resigned Premier Shidehara's progressive party remained silent and aloof.

The four-party meeting—involving Liberals, Socialists, cooperatives and Communists—developed one major point clearly: acceptance of Japan's proposed new constitution by the new cabinet will be "imperative."

Chuzaburo Murotani, right-wing Socialist spokesman, said yesterday during the committee meeting that Communist opposition to the proposed constitution meant there was "no use having Communists in the cabinet."

(Communists have attacked the new document as too lenient with the emperor, and contended it was being "forced on the people.")

U. S. Seeks Fast OK on Pact for Oil

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 26—The administration today pinned a "must" tag on senate ratification of the seven month old Anglo-American petroleum agreement in a hopeful bid toward eliminating oil as an issue in diplomatic disputes.

Final action on the long-pending pact would pave the way for an international oil conference.

Officials who disclosed the administration decision privately said the need for speedy action had been enhanced both by British anxiety over the delay and by Russia's entrance into the petroleum field outside her own borders through the recently-concluded 50-year agreement with Iran.

Progressive Grange Hears Home Ec Report

When Progressive Grange met Tuesday evening in the Grange hall, Mrs. Walter Fetter, chairman of the home economics committee, gave a report of the activities of that group.

In her report, she requested that all Grange members participate in the donation project of the European Food Relief, and asked each one to bring donations to the next meeting, May 7. Donations in food should be in tin cans, but if not available, money will be accepted. Mrs. Fetter also urged the ladies in the Grange to participate in the curtain project being sponsored by the State Home Economics committee in which all subordinate granges are taking part.

It was suggested and accepted by the members that members bring waste paper and cancelled sales tax stamps, the money from which will be used for the purchase of new Grange song books. Several personal money donations have already been made to this project.

Miss Alice Price, lecturer, was in charge of the program. Slide films were shown on 4-H club work such as summer camps, stock judging and showing at county and state fairs. The slides were given by Arthur Smith, county agricultural agent.

At the next meeting, pictures on frozen foods will be shown by Miss Ruth Kleinmaier, and special music will also be presented. Appointed on the refreshment committee were Mrs. Homer Moehn, Mrs. Robert Messenger and Mrs. Elmer Brobst.

The examinations were given by Bernard Balis of Columbus, naturalization examiner. On recommendation of the examiner the applications of six persons were approved by Common Pleas Judge Paul D. Smith and the candidates were given the oath of allegiance by Clerk of Courts Elmer E.

Remarks were also made by Mrs. Fanny Benson, regent of William Hendricks Chapter D.A.R., and Mrs. George Bowers, also of the local D.A.R. chapter. Mrs. Benson and Mrs. Frank presented the new citizens American flags and D.A.R. citizenship pamphlets.

Those receiving citizenship were Mrs. Mary Terzo of 490 Avondale avenue, born in Monreale, Italy, and entering the United States in 1911; Mrs. Louise Pisanti of 165 Edwards street, from Sumatra, Italy and entering the United States in 1906; Andy Gonco of 205 Waterloo street, from Stariya, Austria, entering the United States in 1910; Mrs. Gaetana Sansone of 464 Summit street, from Carini, Italy, entering the United States in 1905; Michael Conrad Galyk of 485 Patterson street, from Kiev, Russia, entering the United States in 1916; Mrs. Mary Catherine Galyk of 485 Patterson street, from Tamasian, Poland, entering the United States in 1913.

HIGHWAY DIRECTOR KIWANIS SPEAKER

Perry T. Ford Discusses Road Improvement Program.

Perry T. Ford, director of the public highway department for the state of Ohio, was guest speaker at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis club Thursday at Hotel Harding.

An explanation of the work of his department, and a report on the condition of highways in the state, was the main theme of the talk by Mr. Ford. He explained that through cooperation with the states which border Ohio, highways which join states will be constructed the same in each of the states.

Mr. Ford stated that it has been a decision of all states to work out a system whereby the width of the roads will take care of the necessary traffic. The highway department is working to eliminate accidents on the highways through better traffic conditions and wider roads.

He stated that the department today is in better condition than in several years past, and that a reconstruction program is in progress.

Members of the club who celebrated birthday anniversaries in April were honored and were presented small gifts. They were E. Paul Bachman, Dr. A. B. Lawson, Dr. G. G. Nuetzel, William L. Dowler, Robert T. Gentry, Dr. N. Sifritt, Harold J. Grigsby, William C. Ulmer, Louis E. Michel, Max Birnbaum, Robert O'Connell and Jack F. Weis.

Mackenzie Hails Army Crackdown on ETO Troops

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
A P News Analyst

It's bad news that there has been such a serious deterioration of morale and discipline among American troops "in certain localities and commands" of Europe the U. S. Commanding General Joseph T. McNarney has found it necessary to inaugurate drastic remedial measures. It's decidedly good news that he has taken vigorous action.

General McNarney's blunt designation of the offenses which have brought about this situation probably will shock the home-folk, although there has been plenty of warning in news dispatches over a considerable period. Among the things the commander lists are participation in black market activities, drunkenness, a high absent-without-leave rate and other disciplinary infractions, an excessive venereal disease rate, and a complaining attitude toward constituted military authority.

DewittMackenzie

That's hard to believe, isn't it? But there it is in black and white, although one hastens to emphasize that this stigma doesn't by any means attach to Uncle Sam's European forces as a whole. Anyway it's a grave epidemic to be circulating among our men, and you can take it from me that the reaction among our Allies definitely is not good.

Saw It Personally

I ran into this at first hand during my recent tour in Europe, and reported on it in this column. The other Allied forces already had taken cognizance of it and were much concerned although naturally close-mouthed. The main fears were that, if the deterioration in morale spread, it might (1) weaken American determination to see the long term of occupation through, and that (2) the Germans might lose respect for Uncle Sam's authority in the Reich.

As a matter of fact, I was told by competent sources that the effect on the Germans was definitely hurtful in those American areas which had become infected with this plague. The only things to which the people of the fatherland respond readily are force and stern discipline. The moment discipline is relaxed, they relax with it.

I'm afraid it must be recorded that well intentioned, but misguided folk back home here in America have been responsible to a considerable degree for the slump in morale overseas. For many months letters from relatives and friends in the United States poured into the occupied zones, beseeching their soldiers to come home and preaching the unfairness of keeping them there after the war was finished. That persistent hammering worried a lot of the boys and made them homesick and discontented. It was an easy step for some to break the rules.

Morals Drop Too

One unsavory aspect of the slump in morale is that it has been accompanied by a slump in morals which has resulted in much fraternization between American soldiers and German women. There are few things calculated to do more damage to American authority over the conquered Hitlerites.

It isn't surprising that General McNarney records an excessive venereal rate. Germany is full of venereal disease, and so are many other parts of Europe for that matter. What else could be expected when Hitler deliberately encouraged immorality in order to breed more soldiers?

The hope is that General McNarney's vigorous action has come in time to repair the damage already done. It would be a disaster if the situation weren't restored.

Honest Difference of Opinion

WHETHER Senator Vandenberg rises (as) today (to) utter an urgent approval of the $3,750,000,000 credit to Britain that Senator Taft would speak against the proposal on "necessary & universal"

Senator Vandenberg was said to favor the Export-Import Bank loan, but out of both acknowledgments that he resigned in favor of Senator Taft and other members of the senate banking and currency committee to be heard first.

There is a sparse expression of honest difference of opinion between the Republican party's two strongest senators. Senator Vandenberg, the party's most respected spokesman on foreign affairs, believes the credit should be advanced on grounds of American self-interest. He sees it as the means of bolstering freedom against the relentless assault of regimented Communism. Admitting the possibility he might be wrong, he said last Monday: "If I am wrong, the risk will be relatively small in comparison with the total proposal. If they [the Soviet opponents] are wrong, the risk would be immense and could be catastrophic. I resolve the latter gamble in the expectation that events will indicate I was right on."

Senator Taft's position is not against helping Great Britain. It is against helping Great Britain in a way that would go past it to repay the money advanced. He would give Britain an outright grant, instead, at a kind of additional payment on the money plan known as lend-lease during wartime. This grant or gift, amounting to $1,250,000,000, would have to be spent in the United States within three years.

The obvious merit in the Taft proposal is its avoidance of the inevitable complications from "frozen" that are not, in fact, loans at all but gestures of confidence. While it might hurt British pride to accept a gift, the fact is that British pride has withstood the stock of the unpaid loans still due from World War I, the unrayable advances made under lend-lease in World War II and should raise no more trouble with a gift under the right name than with a loan it couldn't repay anyway.

Neither senator has put enough stress on the probability that whatever is advanced, either as a loan or a gift, will be followed in due time by further loans and/or gifts. In other words, if 1946 finds the United States advancing $3,750,000,000 or $5,750,000,000, the chances are more will be forthcoming before 1950. For anyone to believe that the British empire, saddled with debt, socialism and political unrest, can be put back in tip-top condition for a few billion dollars is absurd.

We believe Senator Vandenberg is right when he says it is to our self-interest to do what we can, but we believe Senator Taft is right when he says the trying should be done under right names, always remembering that the American taxpayer's dollar, when invested abroad by a political decision, should be secured by something more tangible than a politician's promise.

Henry's Rope Trick

HENRY WALLACE, pursuing the idea that Democrats who stray from the party line should be purged in the authoritarian manner, has moved a little closer to the reductio ad absurdum where the half-baked logic of his idea will boomerang. In his latest speech, he said congressmen who vote against the party's leader should be denied committee memberships and patronage.

No one, it's a safe bet, is going to make a move to save him from getting further involved in this matter. He deserves the consequences. With the possible exception of lunging authoritarians who use him to grind their ax, Mr. Wallace has no friends in politics, only acquaintances who tolerate him because they haven't been able to get rid of him.

The reductio ad absurdum of his notion that party members should be purged for not voting the party line is, of course, the equally logical rebuttal that if the party line is to be compulsory it should be compulsory for members of the party to be consulted about it. The president Democrats Wallace wants to purge are not voting contrary to politics they helped to make out to policies made in their behalf by Mr. Wallace and his gang who are not even Democrats.

The inconsistency of his position must eventually be discovered by Mr. Wallace if he keeps on talking unless he has in mind something like the Communist party, whose party line is laid down by whatever faction happens to control it at the moment. In either case, Mr. Wallace promises to hang himself in his political rope.

News Behind the News

By PAUL MALLON

Byrnes Sees Need of Prayer at Peace Parley.

WASHINGTON, April 26 — Mr. Byrnes will want to depart on the Paris peace mission in the spirit of prayer, if not fasting, it was learned. He has not as yet announced when he intends to leave, but it is apparently according to my understanding, the suggestion rather [illegible]

A journalist present offered as the suggestion that we need to present prayer when "the time of my conquest I was not sure."

The proposal fell in the meeting by the [illegible] of the journalist gathering to write out the [illegible] which caused current among the top diplomats. The suggestion that we might be conquered even in future peaceful treaties came from a very high quarter. However, we were impressed to do this by [illegible] of negotiations after the last war. Unquestionably the attitude here on Russia at the conference and the degree to which it is pressed, will be the [illegible]

British Reluctant

The belief in diplomatic circles that agreement with the British may not come so far. On the other hand, some influential Russian quarters are suggesting that it is a surprised [illegible]

Decisions on the Dardanelles, post-war occupation of Bulgaria, Rumania and Hungary, the map of peace for completion of the Dodecanese islands, and Trieste, of course, will be difficult to get Russia to agree to foreign limitations on her soil and a compromise on what seas may prove to be disputed.

The Italian treaty also is a difficult stumbling block, and there are many others. As a matter of fact, about all that seems to be a sure agreed upon is that there should be peace treaties and that other principles on which they should be made. However, technical questions arise in negotiating with the Russians, trouble always seems to be deep.

As a matter of fact, Byrnes did not arrive when he left whether Molotov, the foreign minister and right hand man of Stalin, would go to the conference or [illegible]. While Vandenberg is very highly regarded in diplomatic quarters, he does not usually rank with either the British foreign minister or the American secretary of state. Some of Byrnes' friends believe that if Molotov came, it would augur well for the success of the meeting, and if Vishinsky was sent it would indicate that the negotiations would run into the same difficulties which they had before.

Predicts Byrnes Will Win

My guess is that the firmness of Mr. Byrnes' position will win at the meeting as it has at the UN security council sessions on Iran. When that issue was brought into the council for the last time by Russia, applicants of appeasement were saying, at least privately, Russia had more votes than we had, or the issue would be very close, the most authentic predicting a vote of only six to five in our favor. After frank discussion, the vote wound up eight to three against the Soviet move to get the council to drop the issue.

To Organize Organized Baseball?

In Boston a new union has been formed—of professional baseball players.

What one wonders are they going to demand—bigger pay, fewer games and time-and-a-half for night games?

Or sugar-coated pay?

It's really be something, after a dubious decision, to see the whole grievance committee come pouring out on the field to negotiate with the umpire.

A lot of players will join the new union, if only to improve their batting averages. No good actor can't going to put another out even if he is a member of Actors' Equity.

If major organized baseball, it will just be a question of time—the time to influence every man in every outfield.

Maybe I'm just old-fashioned but sometimes I prefer baseball the way it is now—when only umpires call the strikes.

King Awaits Greek Vote

Many Predict George II Will Return to Throne.

By ROBERT HEWETT
Associated Press Writer

LONDON—Greece's ever-knowing, ever-speculated King George II and has been exiled from Greece three times in less than 50 years are confident he will return once more to his throne in Athens.

King George has maintained discreet silence on political events in war-torn Greece but he has sent Col. Dimitrios Londos, master of the royal household, back to Athens and informed sources said the monarch was expecting to be restored by the new pro-royalist government before many months have passed.

Only last fall many foreign political observers gave the king less than a 50-50 chance of regaining power. But the Populist (monarchist) party victory in the March elections brought a new air of optimism to the book-lined suite of Claridge's hotel where George has held informal "court" during much of the Nazi occupation and succeeding liberation.

Maintained His Prerogatives

King George has kept closely informed on Greek developments since he went into virtual seclusion after the 1944 civil war and his appointment of Archbishop Damaskinos as regent.

His last public statement was in November 1945 when he issued a stirring protest against the regent's postponement of a plebiscite on the monarchy to 1948. Post-election statements of Populist leaders indicate they also favor an immediate poll on restoration of the king.

The precisely-dressed balding king often strolled unnoticed along Mayfair streets as he lived the quiet life of hundreds of others who took refuge in Britain.

Today, informed sources said,

KING GEORGE II

King George II of the Hellenes is more of a force in Greek politics than at any time since the German invasion in April 1941.

Diplomatic couriers travel between Athens and London on the king's errands and he is reported in close contact with the new government leaders.

On Again, Off Again

George's first experience as an exile was in 1917, when he was crown prince. He joined his father, King Constantine, in exile in Switzerland when the king abdicated under Allied pressure because of alleged pro-German sentiments.

George succeeded to the throne in 1922 as went into his second period of exile the next year when a republic was proclaimed.

In 1935, he was recalled to the throne when the monarchy was restored and he reigned in Athens until driven out by the Germans in 1941.

BALTIMORE—The ancient Egyptians were troubled with baldness, too. Their prescription for baldness, as quoted in a Johns Hopkins journal, was: Two of a dog, one part ass's hoof, one part. Books Returned

By The Associated Press

ROME—Eighteen freight cars, manned and guarded by American troops, recently brought back to Rome 2,000 crates containing 200,000 rare and priceless books from two libraries carted off by the Germans.

Arrival of the libraries in Rome ended a two-year quest by scholars from Allied, enemy and neutral nations during and after the war. The books finally were found by American soldiers hidden in castles and salt mines in Austria.

One collection of nearly 130,000 irreplaceable volumes, collected over a century, was housed in the German Archeological Institute in Rome. The Institute's library, built up by scholars of all nations who came to Rome to study, contained valuable source material dealing with the archeology of ancient Greece and Rome.

The 700,000 other volumes taken by the Nazis were from the Hertziana Library, devoted to art history of the Renaissance.

He was to appear on last night's program with Mrs. Frank J. Lausche, wife of the governor.

He was a former candidate for state senator, and although defeated in the general election in Hamilton county he ran 46,000 votes ahead of the Democratic gubernatorial candidate.

Ohio Speaker Raps at G.O.P.

Oklahoma's Governor Tells Democrats Their Foe Is Dis-United.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., April 26—Gov. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma says the Republican party's leadership is united on only one program—"A continuing investigation of Pearl Harbor."

The Oklahoma Democrat made his assertion last night before some 700 Ohio Democratic party members who consumed a $25 a plate dinner climaxing the party's annual Andrew Jackson day celebration.

The Republicans have "too many old men who cannot emerge from the shadows of the past and too many young men who can not emerge from the shadows of the old men," Kerr asserted.

"The Republican leadership is working to destroy something others are building rather than striving to build something better, and are seeking to divide the people for partisan profit when there should be greater unity for the general welfare," he declared.

"The Republican leadership does not have one program on which it seems to have achieved complete unity. They are resolved, and their records would justify the American people to believe, that they have dedicated themselves henceforth and forever to a continuing investigation of Pearl Harbor."

Kerr, principal speaker at the gathering, paid his respects to "the immortal Franklin D. Roosevelt" and the "magnificent Harry Truman."

Taking up post-war political issues, Kerr said "the Office of Price Administration has done a magnificent job" in holding down living costs of the average family.

"Until a better way is found, or until supply is in reasonable balance with consumer demand, it must be maintained," he said.

Conspicuously absent from the dinner was Gov. Frank J. Lausche, titular head of the Ohio Democrats. He paid his $25, but elected to attend an American Newspaper Publishers association meeting in New York instead of the local party.

The drive will close promptly at 5:30 p. m. tomorrow, with no opportunity to secure memberships after that time. There will be no single admissions sold at the door on the night of a concert performance, it was stressed.

Concerts are brought to Marion through the organized audience plan, which means the Community Concert executive board must know how many people will be in the audience at concerts in order to know how much money will be available to spend on the series, it was explained by Harold Welch of New York, organization director for Community Concert service, division of Columbia Concerts, Inc., through which the Marion association secures artists. The more memberships taken out, the more extensive will be the list of artist talent from which to select.

The goal of the campaign is 1,538, seating capacity of the Palace theater where concerts will be presented. Reports of workers, returned to headquarters, indicate that a capacity house will be reached, it was announced, and Marionites, as well as persons of surrounding communities are urged to secure memberships immediately.

Holders of Marion Community Concert association memberships are privileged to attend concerts in any other part of the country where there is a Community Concert association, it was stated. Memberships are also transferable.

Headquarters of the association are in the H. Schaffner Co. store, which will be open until 8 tonight, and by telephone, headquarters may be reached by dialing 3232.

IT'S TIME FOR A TUNE-UP . . .

If your car is sluggish and winter-weary, it's got "Spring Fever." Bring in your car for complete changeover and tune-up services. Do it now.

THE McDANIEL MOTOR CO.

389 WEST CENTER ST PHONE 4214

Marion Has PAID For a Whole New Set of School Buildings — BUT, HAS NEVER GOTTEN THEM!

Here are some friendly, but frank thoughts for your consideration:

TODAY Marion ought to be a city of at least 45,000. Many other cities have grown as much or more WITHOUT our natural geographical and economic advantages.

Marion is nowhere near that big and if it doesn't grow any faster than it has during the past 15 years it may NEVER reach that size.

The big reason why Marion county LOST population between 1930 and 1940 (and only 5 Ohio counties lost population in that period) is because we citizens have LET MARION GO TO SEED.

Back in 1936 and 1938 it would have been wise to get our city ready to attract new industries and new population. WE DIDN'T. We Were asleep; or we were jealous of each other; or we weren't pulling together; or we listened to the "aginners"; or we felt Marion was good enough as it was. We've paid dearly for this attitude.

In the meantime, the citizens of Middletown, Newark, Mansfield, Columbus, Galion, Bucyrus, Hamilton, Cincinnati, Tiffin and Coshocton, to name a few, GOT TOGETHER. They did the things necessary to attract new industries—and they got them. If Marion had grown the average percentage those cities have grown we would have had our 45,000.

You've heard people say, "What's the matter with Marion?" Well, let's look.

Suppose we had been farsighted and done the things to Marion which would have made it desirable and attractive to new people, like other cities did. Here's what would have happened.

Those new thousands of people, and those new plants which have turned us down over the past 7 or 8 years, would have paid as their fair share of additional taxes approximately two and a quarter of a million dollars (2,225,000.00). That would have PAID our whole bill for new and improved school buildings and more. Those plants would have paid out about thirty million ($30,000,000) new dollars in payrolls which would have been spent for shoes, clothes, groceries, rents and the other necessities of life and that again would bring in new taxes.

In addition our properties would have been worth more, there would have been more job opportunities at good wages; there would have been more homes built; and we would have had a better city from every standpoint.

If we had those extra citizens and plants, they would have paid enough in taxes to Marion, INSTEAD of to SOME OTHER CITY, to build new schools, newsewers, a new airport, recreation centers and lots of other city betterments that WE could have enjoyed "for free". So, our backwardness has cost us enough to build them, but we never got them. We've paid dearly for it.

That isn't dreaming. These are facts. City growth works that way. We've got to get our city ready FIRST then the people will come here to live and establish plants. To say, "let them come, THEN we'll take care of them", doesn't work. We've proven that.

Why didn't these people and plants come to Marion?

There is one big reason why Marion hasn't grown more lately. It's the fellow who votes "NO" on bond issues. You can charge him with the bill of keeping Marion from growing. He may have good reasons of his own. If so, he's entitled to them as a citizen.

BUT, if YOU WANT Marion to grow and be a better city, you should vote FOR the school bond issue. Your dollars will return many times.

If you are not yet sold on the School Bond Issue . . .
Think this over. It may help you decide.

NO ONE CAN BE HARMED BY HAVING NEW AND BETTER SCHOOL BUILDINGS NOW!

Thanks for reading this, neighbor.
